SAURABH AGARWAL

KAMDHENU ISPAT LTD.

Kamdhenu Ispat Ltd. has been a company with high vision that has kept growth to be its major competitive factor. Their journey that began from Rajasthan has now traversed all across the country and even reached out to the neighboring country of Nepal with its rich bouquet of products profile. They are fundamentally into steel sector with top-end products such as reinforcement steel bars (TMT/HSD), structural steel (angles, channels, beams and flats) and binding wire. The company has forayed into real estate segment as well, with Kamdhenu Homz, to carve its own niche in the markets of North India. The company is also manufacturing other integral products in construction segment with latest being plywood and paints. They are exploring into the launching of their brand in the segment of Tiles and PVC pipes. They have basic infrastructure and capital along with the required vision and motivation to take on any challenged that may come up with the incorporation of new business verticals. Today Kamdhenu Ispat Ltd. is in primary capital market, being listed in BSE and NSE, so the responsibility on their shoulders has increased immensely. They are on the high growth track of diversification and in association with their high net worth franchisee units, dealers & distributors, shareholders and customers, success is what they are aiming at.
