Inter-state Kidney Racket Busted

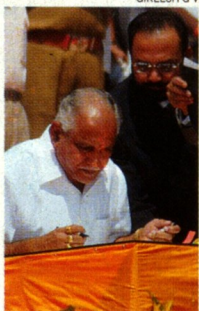

Mumbai Police's Crime Branch has unearthed a kidney racket, worth over Rs 150 crore, which involved over 1,000 transplants in Chennai. Kingpin Dr Palani Ravichandran has been arrested along with four key Mumbai brokers who supplied gullible donors and wealthy recipients. Spreading over nine states and five other Asian countries, the six-year-old racket has left donors baffled and police looking for more, reports Special Correspondent Abhishek Sharan.

Million-Dollar Baby

Two-year-old Lakshmi just turned lucky. Being a conjoined parasitic twin, she had eight limbs and overlapping organs, all in one body. Dr Sharan Patil and his team from Bangalore's Sparsh Hospital came to her rescue. After a 28-hour operation, she has four limbs and normal organs, writes Principal Correspondent Stephen David.

Belly Ballet

The ancient dance form of belly dancing has now become a popular way to burn calories and keep the heart racing. Why? One, because it requires the movement and flexibility of all the muscles in the body, and two, because it's challenging. Bangalore's Arati Punwani of Tarantismo Dance Company is spreading this art of staying fit, writes Nirmala Ravindran.
