

How ITC Found its FMCG Gene

business today
for managing tomorrow

RVN NO. 53481/02

www.businesstoday.in Fortnightly magazine

Vanishing Jobs
Thousands of workers at rupee-hit manufacturing units are losing jobs.

BT Money
The best tax-saving mutual funds.

Goldman's Lloyd Blankfein
CEO of Wall Street giant on the India opportunity.

"We Want to be FMCG's No. 1"
By drawing on ITC's strengths in diverse businesses, Chairman Y.C. Deveshwar built an FMCG machine that's become a market leader in several segments. Now, it's eyeing the No. 1 slot. The inside story.

December 2, 2007
Rs. 15/-

ON SALE NOW

Barely seven years ago, 80 per cent of ITC's revenues used to come from tobacco products. Today, that figure is down to 48 per cent, and the rest comes from non-tobacco businesses, including foods, apparel, and personal care. How did ITC, led by Chairman Yogi Deveshwar, pull off this transformation? Business Today, India's No. 1 business magazine, takes you inside the fascinating story unfolding at ITC.

Plus: Manufacturing's Vanishing Jobs • UPA's Social Sector Scorecard
• An Exclusive Interview with Goldman Sach's Lloyd Blankfein • Special: 20 Companies to Watch in 2008

CELEBRATING 15
Years of Leadership
business today

Discover The Most Exclusive Holidays in India with BT More. Available only in Delhi, Mumbai, Chennai, Bangalore and Kolkata.

No. 1 as per IRS 2007 R1 & R2 and NRS 2006 (Paid & Claimed Readership)

business today
FOR MANAGING TOMORROW