

Lavasa - Free India's largest Hill Station.

Where education can be completed, but learning never ends.

At Lavasa, education is all about lifelong learning. Here you will get the finest education exposure through premier institutes like GDST, UK, Symbiosis, etc. And, at the same time, there will be sports academies for tennis, golf, etc., and courses for other sports and fine arts that will truly complement the learning choices you will have. Choices that make Lavasa a perfect place for education.

HILL STATION • Spread across 100 sq. kms. - almost 1/4th the size of Mumbai • 45 minutes from Pune • Choice of beautiful infrastructure, technology and e-governance • Three cosmopolitan town centres with distinct identities • Finest education
