STATESCAN: BIHAR

RANJAN RAHI

When State Armed Criminals

Bihar's Criminal Investigation Department (CID) is holding senior government officials, including a district magistrate, responsible for providing legal gun licences to criminals—people with fake addresses and those personally known to them. CID has written to the state personnel department seeking government intervention to take action against IAS officer Robert Chongthu, who allegedly violated rules to issue firearm licences, reports Correspondent Amitabh Srivastava.

WEB FEATURE: MAYAWATI GOVERNMENT

Minister in the Dock

Uttar Pradesh minister of food processing Anand Sen Yadav was sacked by Chief Minister Mayawati after his name prominently figured in a kidnap and murder case involving a girl from Faizabad. Her decision to make Yadav a minister, despite his criminal record, is costing her dear, reports Assistant Editor Subhash Mishra.

Luxe on Wheels

Ahmedabad is now a city of spendthrifts thanks to its booming economy. Its roads are proof enough, where BMWs or Mercedes are a common sight. Business families aren't satisfied with one luxury car and import fleets of the most expensive vehicles. Sales are so high that BMW and Audi are soon to open dealerships in the state, writes Associate Editor Uday Mahurkar.
