everything. Even national security.

Perhaps, Paswan was not aware of the observations made by the Parliamentary Standing Committee on Home Affairs barely two months ago. Estimated to be more than 25 million, "the presence of illegal Bangladeshi immigrants in large numbers poses a grave threat to India's internal security," the committee's report said.
It asked the Government to take a serious view of the problem, and strictly monitor their movement. The all-party 25-member committee, led by BJP leader Sushma Swaraj, took note of reports that counterfeit notes were in large circulation along the India-Bangladesh border. It also expressed concern about illegal Bangladeshi migrants managing to secure ration cards, driving licences, voter identity cards and even PAN cards. The report admitted that terrorist groups had been recruiting
